Sunday: 11th October 2009 – 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings: Wis 7:7-11; Heb 4:12-13; Mk 10:17-30

Responsorial Psalm: 89 (Psalm to be said by congregation alternately – reader's side first followed by the Priest's side)

Readers Side:

Make us know the shortness of our life
 that we may gain wisdom of heart.
 Lord, relent! Is your anger for ever?
 Show pity to your servants.

Priests Side:

In the morning, fill us with your love;
 we shall exult and rejoice all our days.

Give us joy to balance our affliction for the years when we knew misfortune.

Readers Side:

Show forth your work to your servants;
 let your glory shine on their children.
 Let the favour of the Lord be upon us:
 give success to the work of our hands.

World Mission Sunday – 18th October. "Reach Out and Give Life" is this year's theme. We live with the comforts of a first world land but the majority of people struggle for survival and risk leprosy, HIV Aids and under nourishment. Our Missionaries with the Pope's Mission Societies bring the Gospel along with education, health care and faith. Flyers available in the Church foyer with a donation form – we urge you to take one home and use this to make your donation.

COMMUNION REFLECTION

Entering the kingdom of

Love

*Jesus saw that the rich young man had great potential,
 so he invited him to enter the world of sharing.
 But he wasn't up to it – riches got in the way.
 As he went away a sadness descended on him,
 the sadness that descends on us
 when we choose to live for ourselves.
 Even though Jesus was sad to see him go,
 nevertheless, he let him go.
 There's no point in forcing people to make sacrifices.
 If you take things from people, they are impoverished;
 but if you can get them to give them up, they are enriched.
 People are essentially good,
 but this goodness has to be awakened and called forth
 if they are to enter the kingdom of love.*
