Responsorial Psalm: 89 (Psalm to be said by congregation alternately – reader's side first followed by the Priest's side)

Readers Side:

You turn men back into dust
and say: 'Go back, sons of men.'
To your eyes a thousand years
are like yesterday, come and gone,
no more than a watch in the night.

Priests Side:

You sweep men away like a dream,
like grass which springs up in the morning.
In the morning it springs up and
flowers:
by evening it withers and fades.

Readers Side:

Make us know the shortness of our life
that we may gain wisdom of heart.
Lord, relent! Is your anger for ever?
Show pity to your servants.

Priests Side:

In the morning, fill us with your love;
we shall exult and rejoice all our days.
Let the favour of the Lord be upon us:
give success to the work of our hands.

COMMUNION REFLECTION

Heavenly glory

While out for an evening walk I emerged from an area

where the streets were lit by bright lamps,
and came into an open, dark area.
It was only then I discovered that the sky was full of stars.
And I thought to myself:
how easily and how effectively the earthly lights
extinguish the heavenly ones.
Lord, help us to seek the things that make us rich in your sight,
and grant that the glitter of this world
may not dim our hopes of heavenly glory.
