Responsorial Psalm: 66 (Psalm to be said by congregation alternately – reader's side first followed by the Priest's side)

Readers Side:

O God, be gracious and bless us
and let your face shed its light upon us.
So will your ways be known upon earth.
and all nations learn your saving help.

Priests Side:

Let the nations be glad and exult
for you rule the world with justice.

With fairness you rule the peoples,
you guide the nations on earth.

Readers Side:

Let the peoples praise you, O God;
let all the peoples praise you.
May God still give us his blessing till the ends of the earth revere him.

COMMUNION REFLECTION

Signposts on the footpath of peace

To be glad of life, because it gives you a chance to love,
to work, to play, and to look up at the stars.
To despise nothing in the world except what is false and mean.
To fear nothing except what is cowardly.
To be guided by what you admire and love,
rather than by what you hate.
To envy nothing that is your neighbour's except his kindness of heart and gentleness of manner.
To think seldom of your enemies, often of your friends,
and everyday of Christ.
And to spend as much time as you can, with body and with spirit, in God's out-of-doors.
These are little signposts on the footpath of peace.
