COMMUNION REFLECTION

A new language

On Pentecost day the apostles spoke a new language.

What was this new language?

It was the language of peace rather than of war;
the language of cooperation rather than of competition;
the language of forgiveness rather than of vengeance;
the language of hope rather than of despair;
the language of friendship rather than of hostility;
the language of unity rather than of division;
the language of love rather than of hate.

Through the gift of the Spirit,
people of different languages learned to profess one faith,
to the praise and glory of God.

That is the real miracle of Pentecost,
and it is a miracle which, thankfully, still happens.

As soon as the final text of the Roman Missal
uploaded to the website:

KIA KOTAHĪ Ā TINANA Ā
WAIŪA
IROTO I A TE KARAITI
These words, “Become One Body One Spirit in Christ” – “Kia Kotahi ā-Tinana ā-Wairua i roto i a te Karaiti” we hear in the Third Eucharistic Prayer. They remind us that we are called to be the Body of Christ, the Church.

Because of its strong imagery, the Bishops of the International Commission on English in the Liturgy (ICEL) have used these same words as the title for an interactive resource to introduce the Roman Missal to all countries where English is one of the primary languages for worship.
