Responsorial Psalm: 95 (Psalm to be said by congregations alternately – reader's side first followed by the Priest's side)

Readers Side:

O sing a new song to the Lord,
sing to the Lord all the earth.
Tell among the nations his glory
and his wonders among all the peoples.

Priests Side:

The Lord is great and worthy of praise,
to be feared above all gods;
the gods of the heathens are naught.
It was the Lord who made the heavens.

Readers Side:

Give the Lord, you families of people
give the Lord glory and power,
give the Lord the glory of his name.
Bring an offering and enter his court

Priests Side:

Worship the Lord in his temple.
O earth, tremble before him.
Proclaim to the nations: 'God is king.
He will judge the peoples in fairness.

PARISH WORKING BEE – 22 October 2011

We will be having a working bee at 29 View Road on 22 October from 10.00am to 12pm. We will need volunteers to help us so if you are available for a couple of hours on that day, we would appreciate your help.

Please contact the Parish Office on 838-1558 during office hours for any queries.

COMMUNION REFLECTION

Life and religion

Who can separate his faith from his actions,
or his belief from his occupations?

Who can spread his hours before him, saying:
'This for God and this for myself;
this for my soul and this other for my body?'

He who wears his morality but as his best garment were better naked.

Your daily life is your temple and your religion.

Whenever you enter into it take with you your all.

Take the plough and the forge and the mallet and the lute,
the things you have fashioned in necessity or for delight.

And take with you all men.

And if you would know God...look about you and you will see him playing with your children.

(Kahlil Gibran, The Prophet, William Heinemann)
