 Mt 25:31-46

Responsorial Psalm: 22 (Psalm to be said by congregation alternately reader's side first followed by the Priest's side)

Readers Side:

The Lord is my shepherd;
 there is nothing I shall want.
 Fresh and green are the pastures
 where he gives me repose.

Priests Side:

Near restful waters he leads me,
 to revive my drooping spirit.
 He guides me along the right path;
 he is true to his name.

Readers Side:

You have prepared a banquet for me
 in the sight of my foes.
 My head you have anointed with oil;
 my cup is overflowing.

Priests Side:

Surely goodness and kindness :
 follow me
 all the days of my life.
 In the Lord's own house shall I dwell
 for ever and ever.

COMMUNION REFLECTION

The greatest evil in the world

Mother Teresa said:

'Many today are starving for ordinary bread.
But there is another kind of hunger -
the hunger to be wanted, to be loved, to be recognised.
Nakedness too is not just the want of clothes,
but also about loss of dignity, purity and self-respect.
And homelessness is not just want of a house;
there is the homelessness of being rejected,
of being unwanted in a throwaway society.
The biggest disease in the world today is the feeling of being unwanted and uncared for.
The greatest evil in the world is lack of love,
the terrible indifference towards one's neighbour.'
Lord, warm our cold hearts with your grace,
so that we your disciples may produce the fruits of love.

Pre-Election Reflections

*Above all else, we value human life and human dignity...we value our inter-dependence...we believe that peaceful and right relationships are best achieved through a focus on reconciliation...we value the many different cultural and ethnic groups...we also reach out across the divide between rich and poor...we hold in trust the many great gifts God has provided for all people, including...the natural environment...and our relationships...During elections we have the opportunity to practice what is our right and also our responsibility as citizens – to address the needs of all...We ask you to give priority to these principles in assessing the party policies and candidates for election.
