Readers Side:

I thank you, Lord, with all my heart,
you have heard the words of my mouth.

Before the angels I will bless you.
I will adore before your holy temple.

Priests Side:

I thank you for your faithfulness and love
which excel all we ever knew of you.

On the day I called, you answered;
you increased the strength of my soul

Readers Side:

The Lord is high yet he looks on lowly
and the haughty he knows from afar
Your love, O Lord, is eternal, discard not the work of your hands.

COMMUNION REFLECTION

Peter

Peter has been called a stumbling saint.
He is a great consolation to us because courage fails us all.
All of us are mere mortals,
who are inconstant in our beliefs.
We must learn to forgive ourselves
momentary weaknesses and failures.
We need to surmount these things
and see the world in less rigid terms.
We must not judge ourselves or others
by momentary inconsistencies,
but rather by commitment given over a long time.
Jesus was well aware of Peter's faults,
but he saw that, in spite of everything,
his heart was sound.
which meant he had the ability to love.
And in the long run love is what counts.

PROLIFE FACTS

At the New Zealand Forum on the Family held in Auckland in July, the Prime Minister stated that he would support a Private Member's Bill on euthanasia being referred to a Select Committee for consideration. The New Zealand Medical Association is totally opposed to legislation that would allow doctors to kill their patients or assist in their suicide.
