Communion Reflection

Promises To Keep

Whose woods these are I hardly know,
his house is in the village though;
he will not see me stopping here
to watch his woods fill up with snow.
My little horse must think it queer
to stop without a farmhouse near,
between the woods and frozen lake
the darkest evening of the year.
He gives his harness bells a shake
to ask if there is some mistake;
the only other sound is the sweep
of easy wind and downy flake.
The woods are lovely, dark and deep,
but I have promises to keep;
and miles to go before I sleep,
and miles to go before I sleep.

-Robert Frost-

CALLED AND CHOSEN

Being "called" offers the possibility of being "chosen." Choice is a two-sided freedom. Today we hear about Elisha's call: he prepares his work and family and then takes up the work of Elijah. We hear Jesus' stronger call: Jesus demands a free, single-minded response. There is no turning back for those who follow Him. It is a daunting call to salvation, to holiness, to sharing His life. He gives us courage to follow Him in the Eucharist. Do we, do you, dare to answer that call, wherever it leads?

(Phillip J. Sandstrom, STD, 2000 OCP)

ProLife Facts: The Cabinet of the Coalition Government is considering abortion law reform. Speculation is that abortion will be allowed for any reason up to 20 weeks. A decision could be weeks or months away. In the meantime, a deluge of pro-abortion stories is pouring out from online news outlets such as Stuff, Newsroom and The Spinoff. The media in general support abortion without limits, and the anti-abortion movement is struggling to make their voices heard. The latest development are surveys purporting to convince the general public and especially MPs, that the majority of Kiwis support abortion on demand. In contrast, a 2016 survey commissioned by Family First and conducted by independent polling company Curia Market Research found that 56% of women surveyed, wanted shorter, not longer time limits for abortion – and only 9% believed that abortions should be allowed at 20 weeks. For more pro-life information, visit www.voiceforlife.org.nz.
